

Personal Details—Part A

Employment Application Form

Application for post of:

In line with our commitment to equal opportunities Part A including the sheet on conviction history will be removed on receipt and will not be seen by the short listing panel. Therefore your name and address will remain anonymous until the short listing process is complete. Criminal record history, if any, will only be disclosed to the interview panel after interviews have taken place and an offer of employment is to be considered.

Please read through this form before completing using black ink or type so it can be easily photocopied. Make sure you consider each of the points on the enclosed job description and person specification and show how you meet each condition. In accordance with best practice in equal opportunities we do not accept CVs. We believe that a standard application form is the fairest way of getting consistent and relevant information about applicants.

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975

The post you have applied for is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 because it involves access to children, older or vulnerable people. You are required to provide details of all prosecutions pending, convictions or cautions, even if they are classified as 'spent'.

If you are successful in this recruitment process we will obtain an enhanced disclosure from the DBS (Disclosure and barring Service - please be aware that all convictions are shown on the disclosure) this also includes registration with ISA (Independent Safeguarding Authority).

Failure to disclose any convictions could result in dismissal or disciplinary action.

Do you have a prosecution pending, or have you ever been convicted at a court or been cautioned by the police for any offence? Yes / No

If Yes: Details of the type of offence, date, sentence, fine etc. should be placed in a separate, sealed envelope, which will subsequently be returned to you. It will only be opened if you are considered for the appointment. Such information will be completely confidential to the appointing panel.

A criminal record will not necessarily be a bar to obtaining a position.
